HISTORICAL BACKGROUND (DISCUSS IMPORTANT PERSONS AND EVENTS ASSOCIATED WITH THIS STRUCTURE):
 In 1889, the Littleton Independent reported that John Cromley had moved into his double house on Malinda St. [Alamo] which he shared with Richard M. White. Cromley announced that he was doing shoe repairing there. The 1905 city directory listed occupants for the double house: Mrs. S.T. Cromley, dry goods, and Mrs. S.C. Fox, dry goods; and R.M. White, Surveyor. The 1920 U.S. Census listed Richard M. White, 64 year old, born in Illinois, a manager, living here with his wife, Hattie. Also here were Charles Hugins (?), merchant with a fuel and feed company, and his wife Annie and three other family members. In 1932, W.M. and Minnie Hoar, farmers, lived in one part of the dwelling, and J.W. Brumfield, a contractor, and his wife, Lou, lived in the other part. In 1939, Mr. and Mrs. Hoar were still here. Loran and Mary Stone and their children lived in the other half of the house. Mr. Stone was employed with Denver Mutual Water Works.
